

Acorn Update: Friday 24th November 2023

This week the children in Acorn have been enjoying working in the learning environment consolidating the skills they have learnt so far. The children have enjoyed reading and writing and using the maths area to make 'Fruity treats'.

The children have also been painting their Diya lamps as part of our learning on Diwali.

Have a great weekend!

Ms Blake