

As a learner, I am...

The Anglo Saxons and The Vikings

Summer Term 1- Willow Class

As a historian, I am developing my understanding of case studies in a historical context. I will be using a range of historical sources to interpret, discuss and research the importance of Anglo Saxons and Vikings.

As a geographer, I learning and developing my understanding of Saxon and Viking settlements. I will also being using a range of map skills to locate where the Saxons and Vikings originated.

As a scientist, I am exploring the importance of the human body including learning about the skeletal system and the key muscles.

In my Physical Education, I am learning the importance and skills of swimming. I am developing my stroke technical and to have a clear understanding of water safety.

I will also be learning the key skills that are needed for cricket.

As a musician, I am beginning to understand the importance of improvisation.

As a designer & maker, I am going to be designing and making an aircraft, which flies a certain distance.

In my study of French, I am going to learn about the Vikings in France. This includes work as "language detectives", trying to work out meanings of words using different strategies.

In Computing, I am learning about data bases with then an understanding to create my own data base.

In Religious Education, I am focusing on the question 'Did Jesus really do miracles?'

In PSHE, I am looking at and focusing on the theme 'Keeping myself safe'. This includes keeping healthy, discussing the dangers of smoking and alcohol.

In my study of English, my key text is 'The Stone Age Boy'. I am writing to entertain with a focus on narrative. I will also be writing to inform.

As a mathematician, I am learning and applying through mastery key mathematical concepts.