Paint, Texture, Colour	Pupils will become familiar with the term 'expressionism'. They will be introduced to two artists who use colour and mark making to make art. Pupils will take part in discussion, responding to artists work verbally and visually in sketchbooks and peer conversation. Pupils will use various home-made tools to apply paint in abstract patterns. They will continue to develop their knowledge of primary and secondary colours through expressive mark making, connecting colour and texture. Pupils will then consolidate what they have learnt by recording and reflecting in sketchbooks. Pupils will explore the brushwork of two old masters. They will focus in on details of paintings to understand how they built the work. Pupils will respond through class discussion and creating visual notes in their sketchbooks. Pupils will record similar brush marks that they see in paintings and capture the colour that stand out to them. Pupils will arrange their own still life scene which they will go on to make continuous line drawings of. They will expand their journey by introducing colour and form by tearing and arranging coloured paper in their composition. Pupils will go on to use acrylic paint to create gestural paintings of their still life scene, putting into practice all that they have experienced during the half term. Pupils will display their work in a clear space and reflect on the half term, sharing what they like and what they would like to try again through peer discussion. Marela Zacarias, Charlie French, Vincent Van Gogh, Cezanne	Pupils will become familiar with the work of artist's Alice Kettle and Hannah Rae. They will respond to their work through peer discussion and will demonstrate their understanding of how they can use sketchbooks to collect, process and consolidate information while they look at artist's work. Pupils will begin to understand how artists use a variety of marks by deconstructing their work and recording the different marks that they can see. As they see the diversity of mark making, they will begin to make their own creative decisions about when to use marks in a particular context and will gain an understanding of how the marks they choose will affect the final drawing. Pupils will begin by creating a variety of marks in stitch on plain canvas, taking inspiration from the marks that they made in the previous week. They will go on paint canvas according to the theme, demonstrating paint mixing skills. They will use their sketchbooks as a tool to develop ideas, explore colour and experiment with mark making. Pupils will explore drawing source material as stimuli or will take inspiration from their own local environment. Pupils will display their work in a clear space and reflect on the half term, sharing what they like and what they would like to try again through peer discussion. Alice Kettle, Hannah Rae	Pupils will explore the work of the artists Njideka Akunyili Crosby, Yinka Shonibare and Thandiwe Muriu, who all work with notions about identity. They will record their thoughts and observations in sketchbooks through visual note taking. Pupils will create a series of portraits drawings of their peers using a variety of drawing materials. They will work intuitively at varying lengths of time to record and draw. Pupils will create a physical (using drawing materials, paper, collage), or digital exploration of how to make a layered portrait which captures aspects of their personality and identity. They will use sketchbooks throughout to help explore and focus, test and reflect. Pupils will display their work in a clear space and reflect on the half term, sharing what they like and what they would like to try again through peer discussion.
