

Beech Class Weekly Update Friday 9th December 2022

This week has been full of singing and performing our Nativity among many other things. We are so very proud of all the children. We will be sending you all an individual photo of your child before the end of term.

Here are some things you could ask me about at home:

How is your Christmas Gratitude wreath coming along?

Have a wonderful weekend,

Ms. Keogh