As a learner, I am…

WWI Autumn term 2 – Oak Class
As a historian, I will be looking at the key question 'Was World War 1 really the 'war to end all wars'?	As a geographer, I am learning about which countries were central powers, allied powers and neutral countries during WW1 and also how Germany's territory changed before and after the war.	As a scientist, I am learning that light appears to travel in straight lines, we see things because light travels from light sources to our eyes and light travels in straight lines.
In my Physical Education, I am swimming and Netball	As a musician, I am learning about the history of modern music and the people behind it.	As an Artist, I will be exploring how 2D drawings can be transformed to 3D objects through portraits
In my study of French, I am learning how to talk about my daily routines and those of French soldiers in World War 1.	In Computing, I will be learning how to stay safe online
In PSHE, I am learning about the quality of friendships and how to have kind conversation.	In my study of English, my key texts are 'Private Peaceful '(Michael Morpurgo) and 'The Last Post' (Keith Campion) As a writer, I am writing a poem based on Remembrance Day, a letter based on writing from the front and a recount description using 'The Christmas Truce' Sainsburys advert	As a mathematician, I am learning about multiplication and division and also fractions.