

Beech Class Weekly Update

Friday 29th November

Nativity rehearsals are well underway and coming along very nicely. We look forward to seeing you at the performance of you can make it!

There was no homework last week as we had assessment week. Homework will go out today. A reminder that Purple Mash is updated with weekly tasks. If your child completes these, you can access an abundance of tasks on their yourselves. They do not have to be set by me.

All logins were sent out in reading folders in the autumn term and have not changed.

Maths: Number bonds represented on the part whole model

Snow Day!
